

FBLA off to nationals

by Brad Piel

The Seaman FBLA members have done some outstanding work this year. Not only did every member place in the top ten in districts earlier in the year, but multiple members also placed in the top three, taking them to the national stage. The members include: Kendall Leatherman, Grant Boyd, Rachel Shelton, Sam Moylan, Marcy and Michelle Anderson, and Alex Haas.

They competed in topics such as Global Business, Hospitality Management and Management

---

“It’s pretty exciting that I am able to go back to Nationals. I took a few tests, so I’m glad that I was able to qualify in at least one of them. It should be a pretty good time.”

-Grant Boyd

---

and Decision Making. The qualifying members, if able to participate, will head to Chicago, Illinois over the summer for the National Leadership Conference.

This year’s group well outperformed last year’s members, which only consisted of two qualifying nationalists: Sam Moylan and Grant Boyd.

Senior Grant Boyd says, “It’s pretty exciting that I am able to go back to Nationals. I took a few tests, so I’m glad that I was able to qualify in at least one of them. It should be a pretty good time.”

The National Leadership Conference will be a four-day event beginning June 29 to July 2. The members will convene to compete in leadership events, share their successes, and learn new ideas about shaping their career future through workshops and exhibits.